Making the dress:

Sew bodice back, side seam ("Princess seam"), to the back, working the pieces separately. Sew the narrowest darts of the bodice front, on the outside so that the fabric is visible. Trim the widest dart leaving 2 cm at each side; sew (English flat stitch), leaving the fabric on the outside. Close the sides. Sew the sides of the skirt to the skirt front and back; close the center back seam up to the end of zipper mark. Join the skirt to the bodice base. Line the body and clean finish the neckline. Sew the zipper on the back. Hem.
